Training Programme on Paper File Making

Title of the Programme	Training Programme on Paper file making
Organizing Department/Cell	ED Club
Number of Students Enrolled	22
Name of the Resource Person	KamalRajmohan, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, Sreekrishnapuram V T Bhattathiripad College Ph:9847974187
Objectives of the Programme	To educate participants on creating eco-friendly paper files using recycled materials and sustainable practices.
Outcomes of the Programme	The outcome of the Training Programme on Paper File Making was that participants gained practical skills in crafting eco-friendly paper files from recycled materials, enhancing their understanding of sustainable practices.

Report

On August 12, 2022, the ED Club held a Training Programme on Paper File Making at the College Auditorium. The event, coordinated by Sinu M, Assistant Professor in the Commerce Department, featured Kamal Raj Mohan as the resource person. The training focused on teaching participants how to create paper files using environmentally sustainable methods. He demonstrated how to repurpose old newspapers, cardboard, and other paper waste into new, functional file folders, conserving resources and reducing waste. Participants learned the process of preparing recycled paper by shredding and pulping old products, then forming and drying the pulp to create new sheets. Practical demonstrations were provided on assembling these sheets into file folders using eco-friendly adhesives and natural dyes to enhance the files' durability and appearance. The session also covered tips on maintaining the quality and longevity of recycled paper files.

The brochure features a background image of a person's hands working at a desk with a pen and papers. The text is overlaid on this image. At the top left is the college's circular logo. The main title is in large white letters. Below it, the date is in yellow. The resource person's name and title are in yellow text within a dark blue rounded rectangle. The venue and coordinator information are at the bottom in white and yellow text.

Theatre Workshop:"Chalanam"

Title of the Programme	Theatre Workshop:"Chalanam"
Organizing Department/Cell	Department of Sanskrit
Number of Students Enrolled	17
Name of the Resource Person	Favas Amir Hamsa, Choreographer, Movement Artist
Objectives of the Programme	To enhance participants' understanding and mastery of movement in theater acting, enabling them to use their bodies more effectively to convey character, emotion, and narrative, thereby enriching their overall performance quality.
Outcomes of the Programme	Participants will gain a solid foundation in movement techniques, improving their ability to use physicality to convey character and emotion effectively.

Report

On March 27, 2023, V. T. Pathanakendram conducted a workshop on the Calanam movement in theater acting. Dr. Sruthi P. A. served as the coordinator for the workshop, welcoming participants from VTB College and members of Natyasasthra. The event was held at Natyasasthra Kadambazhipuram and commenced at 10:00 AM. G. Dileepan, the director of Natyasasthra, inaugurated the workshop. The morning session, which lasted until 1:00 PM, was led by Favas Ameer Hamsa, a renowned choreographer and movement artist. During this session, participants were introduced to the fundamentals of the Calanam movement, its application in theater acting, and various techniques to enhance their performance skills. Following a lunch break, the afternoon session began at 2:00 PM. This session was interactive, allowing participants to engage directly with Favas Ameer Hamsa. The interaction provided an opportunity for students to ask questions, seek clarification, and gain deeper insights into the movement techniques discussed earlier. The workshop saw active participation from several esteemed faculty members, including Mini K. from the Department of Malayalam, Dhanya M., Librarian at SVTB College, Dr. Parvathy K. P. from the Department of Sanskrit. Dr. Sruthi P. A. delivered a vote of thanks, acknowledging the contributions of Favas Ameer Hamsa, the participants, and all those who helped organize the event.
