About the College

Sreekrishnapuram V T Bhattathiripad College is situated in the idyllic village of Mannampatta Sreekrishnapuram of Palakkad District of Kerala. The college is named after V.T. Bhattathiripad who is acknowledged as one of the pioneers of social revolution in Kerala. College is geographically located in a rural area, 32 km away from Palakkad town, nestled on top of a hill amidst 32 acres of lush greenery. Established in 1982, this is the only Arts and Science College in this area with an approximate intake of more than 900 students. The college in consonance with its vision and mission caters to the needs of the students of socially and economically marginalized groups of Palakkad district. The college is under the management of Sree Sankara Trust which was founded in the year 1965 at Peringara, Kerala State by a few well-wishers of the Namboothiri Community. The objective of the trust centers around the ideals and doctrine of advaita vedanta as expounded by Jagad Guru Sree Adi Sankara, the great saint of India. It seeks to realign education and social welfare activities and bring the students and the youth of the country with a value-based and progressive attitude that may help enrich human life. Sreekrishnapuram V T Bhattathiripad College is the second college of the trust and was established in memory of the revolutionist and progressive writer, late V. T. Bhattathiripad. The ideologies and principles of this great reformer have been adopted as the mission of our college.
