

SREEKRISHNAPURAM V.T. BHATTATHIRIPAD COLLEGE

Aided and Affiliated to University of Calicut, NAAC Accredited with B+ Grade

Phone (Office) : 0466-2268285 | Email : principalvtbcollege@gmail.com

CRITERION - VII INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

www.vtb.ac.in

Mannampatta P.O., Palakkad - 678 633

SREEKRISHNAPURAM V.T. BHATTATHIRIPAD COLLEGE

Aided and Affiliated to University of Calicut, NAAC Accredited with B+ Grade
Phone (Office) : 0466-2268285 | Email : principalvtbcollege@gmail.com

7.1.4 Initiatives for Inclusive Environment, Sensitisation to Constitutional Obligations

Constitutional Obligations

7.1.4 Activities Addressing Constitutional Inclusiveness

Index
Sl. No.	Programme Title	Page No.
1	Independence Day celebration	4
2	World Consumer Rights Day	7
3	National Unity Day	9
4	Hiroshima & Nagasaki Day	12
5	Gandhi Martyrs Day	14
6	Gandhi Jayanti Celebration	16
7	Constitution Day Celebration	19
8	Seminar on Building Entrepreneurial Traits in New Generation	21
9	Pulwama Attack 1st Anniversary Event Held in College	24
10	Human Rights Day Celebration: Human rights -Evolution and importance	26
11	Webinar on Human Rights Day: Right to Information and Human Rights	28
12	Human Rights Day Celebration: Human Rights and Constitution of India	30
13	Human Rights Day Celebration: Human Rights Awareness	32
14	A Seminar on the Topic Human Rights and Constitution "Freedom of Mind is the Proof of One's Existence	35

Independence Day celebrations

Name of the Activity	Independence Day celebrations
Name of the Organizing Club	NSS
Date	14/08/2023
Venue	College
Objective	To honor and commemorate the history
Number of Participants	Students of the College
Outcome of the Programme	Increased sense of patriotism and national pride among the students

Report of the Activity

The Independence Day celebrations, held on August 14, 2023, at the college, honored and commemorated India's history, organized by the NSS volunteers. Lance Naik hoisted the national flag and addressed the students, evoking feelings of nationalism and emphasizing the importance of the freedom struggle. The Programme culminated in a campus cleaning drive, participated by students, promoting unity and integrity. The outcome was an increased sense of patriotism and national pride among students, fulfilling their fundamental duties as responsible citizens and contributing to the nation's growth and development.

Outcome:

- Increased sense of patriotism and national pride among students
- Enhanced understanding of India's history and freedom struggle

Constitutional Obligations:

- Fulfils the constitutional value of patriotism and nationalism, promoting unity and integrity of the nation
- Empowers citizens to participate in nation-building activities, like campus cleaning drives

Conclusion:

The Independence Day celebrations successfully instilled a sense of patriotism and national pride among students, aligning with constitutional obligations that emphasize respect for the Constitution, nationalism, and unity. By participating in the Programme, students fulfilled their fundamental duties as responsible citizens, contributing to the nation's growth and development.

Photos

Flag hoisting

Parade Salute

World Consumer Rights Day

Name of the Activity	World Consumer Rights Day
Name of the Organizing Department	Department of Economics
Date	15/03/2023
Venue	College
Objective	Increase awareness among students about the consumer's rights, responsibilities and for seeking redressal of grievances.
Number of Participants	Students and all staffs of the College
Outcome of the Programme	Enhance education on consumer rights to students.

Report of the activity

The World Consumer Rights Day, observed on March 15, 2023, by the Department of Economics with Foreign Trade, aimed to increase awareness among students about consumer rights, responsibilities, and grievance redressal. Through this initiative, students propagated the idea among their peers and faculties, creating global awareness about consumer rights and needs. The Programme's outcome was enhanced education on consumer rights among students, which emphasizes raising the standard of living and improving public health, and Article 21A, which ensures the fundamental right to education. By empowering students with knowledge on consumer rights, the Programme fulfilled the consumer protection principles enshrined in the Consumer Protection Act, 2019, and promoted awareness and responsibility among future consumers.

Outcome:

- Enhanced education on consumer rights among students
- Increased awareness about consumer rights, responsibilities, and grievance redressal

Constitutional Values:

- Resonates with the consumer protection principles enshrined in the Consumer Protection Act, 2019
- Fulfils the right to education by empowering students with knowledge on consumer rights.

Conclusion:

The Programme successfully enhanced education on consumer rights among students, aligning with constitutional values that prioritize public health, consumer protection, and education. By observing World Consumer Rights Day, the college promoted awareness and empowerment, enabling students to become informed and responsible consumers.

Photos

Students explaining consumer right

National Unity Day

Name of the Activity	National Unity Day
Name of the Organizing club	NSS
Date / Duration	31/10/2023
Venue	College
Objective	To celebrate our diverse heritage, fostering a sense of togetherness and pride.
Number of Participants	Students of the College
Outcome of the Programme	Increase sense of national identity and pride among students.

Report of the Activity

On October 31, 2023, the National Unity Day celebrates at the college, in order to emphasize India's diverse heritage, fostering a sense of togetherness and pride among students. The event featured flag hoisting, cultural performances, and speeches promoting unity, embracing the spirit of national solidarity and emphasizing the importance of harmony and understanding to build a strong, united nation. By doing so, the Programme aligned with constitutional obligations, which emphasizes promoting harmony and common brotherhood, the Preamble's objective of promoting unity and integrity, and the constitutional value of secularism, celebrating diverse heritage and promoting inclusivity, ultimately increasing the sense of national identity and pride among participants.

Outcome:

- Fostered a sense of togetherness and unity among participants
- Promoted harmony and understanding among students from diverse backgrounds
- Emphasized the importance of national solidarity and integrity

Constitutional Obligations:

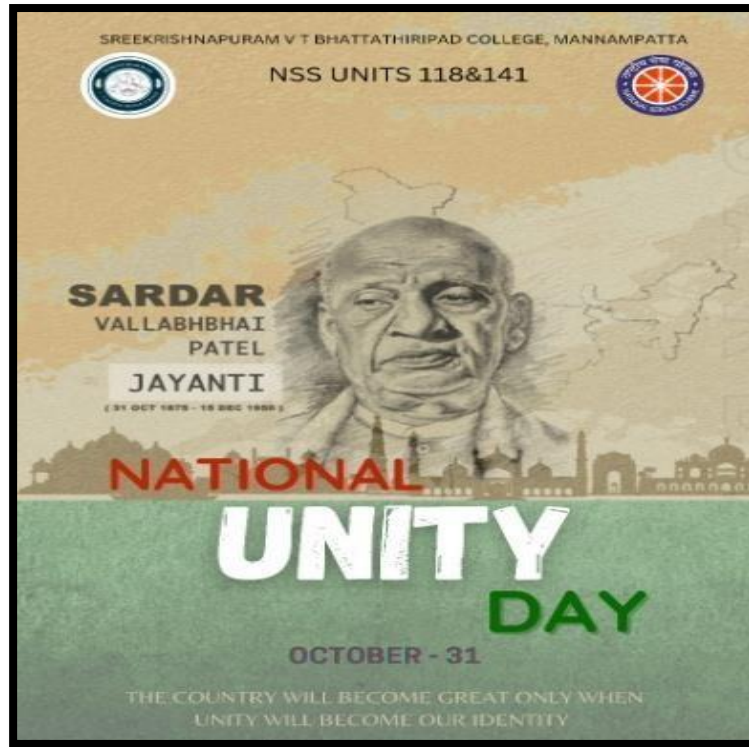

- Emphasizes the fundamental duty to promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood among the students
- Promoting unity and integrity of the nation
- Fulfils the constitutional value of secularism, celebrating diverse heritage and promoting inclusivity

Conclusion:

The National Unity Day Programme successfully fostered a sense of togetherness and pride, promoting national identity and solidarity among students.

Photos

Brochure

Taking Pledge

Hiroshima & Nagasaki Day

Name of the Activity	Hiroshima & Nagasaki Day
Name of the Organizing Club	NSS
Date	9/8/2022
Venue	College
Objective	To honor and remember the victims of atomic bombing of Nagasaki.
Number of Participants	Students of the College
Outcome of the Programme	Honoring the victims and survivors of the atomic bombing of Nagasaki, paying tribute to their lives lost and affected by the tragedy.

Report of the Activity

The Hiroshima & Nagasaki Day Programme, held on August 9, 2022, at the college, honored and remembered the victims of the atomic bombing of Nagasaki, promoting peace and remembrance through prayers, speeches, a poster-making competition. The Programme aligned with constitutional obligations, including international peace and security and the fundamental duty to protect the environment and promote peace and cooperation. By commemorating the tragic event, the Programme inspired participants to become responsible global citizens.

Outcome:

- Honoured victims and survivors of the atomic bombing
- Promoted message of peace and remembrance

Constitutional Obligations:

- Emphasizes the need to promote international peace and security among the students.
- Resonates the objective of promoting world peace and cooperation
- Remembering the students to protect the environment and promote peace

The Programme commemorated the tragic atomic bombing of Nagasaki, promoting peace, remembrance, and nuclear disarmament. By doing so, it aligned with constitutional obligations, emphasizing international peace, cooperation, and environmental protection, and inspiring participants to become responsible global citizens.

Photos

Poster

Gandhi Martyrs Day

Name of the Activity	Gandhi Martyrs Day
Name of the Organizing Club	NSS
Date	30/01/2022
Venue	College
Objective	Pay tribute to Mahatma Gandhi on the anniversary of his assassination, reflecting on his principles of non-violence, truth, and social justice
Number of Participants	Students of the College
Outcome of the Programme	Increased awareness and understanding of Gandhi's role in India's Independence movement

Report of the Activity

The Gandhi Martyrs Day Programme, held on January 30, 2022, at the college, paid tribute to Mahatma Gandhi and reflected on his principles of non-violence, truth, and social justice. Students took a pledge to work towards harmony, stand against discrimination, and contribute to community betterment, demonstrating increased awareness and understanding of Gandhi's principles. The Programme aligned with constitutional obligations, including fundamental duty to promote harmony, the principles of equality. By inspiring students to become responsible citizens promoting harmony, equality, and social justice, the Programme fulfilled its objective and promoted constitutional values of peace and tranquility, contributing to a harmonious society.

Outcome:

- Increased awareness and understanding of Gandhi's principles among students
- Inspired students to become responsible citizens promoting harmony, equality, and social justice

Constitutional Obligations:

- Aware the students about the fundamental duty to promote harmony
- Upholds principles of equality among the students

Conclusion:

The Programme successfully paid tribute to Mahatma Gandhi and inspired students to embrace his principles, fulfilling constitutional obligations and promoting a harmonious society.

Photos

Moment of Silence

Gandhi Jayanthi Celebration

Name of the Activity	Gandhi Jayanthi Celebration
Name of the club	NSS
Date	2/10/2019
Venue	College
Objective	To educate people, especially youth, about Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy of non-violence and its impact on India.
Number of Participants	50
Outcome of the Programme	Increased awareness and understanding of Gandhi's philosophy, his role in India's movement, and his global influence on peace and non-violence.

Report of the Activity

The college observed Gandhi Jayanti on October 2, 2019, to commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. The Programme aimed to educate people, especially youth, about Gandhi's philosophy of non-violence and its impact on India

The Programme was inaugurated by College Principal Dr. E Jayan, who emphasized the significance of Gandhi's philosophy in today's world. Students organized a rally to raise awareness about Gandhi's philosophy and the importance of the day. The rally was marked by enthusiastic participation from students, who carried placards and banners with quotes and messages inspired by Gandhi. Students performed a street drama at Kadambazhipuram junction, highlighting the evils of drug abuse and the importance of non-violence. The drama was well-received by the audience and effectively conveyed the message.

Outcome:

- Increased awareness and understanding of Gandhi's philosophy, his role in India's freedom movement, and his global influence on peace and non-violence among participants.
- Enhanced sense of social responsibility and commitment to promoting non-violence and harmony among students.

Constitutional Obligations:

- Emphasizes the fundamental duty of every citizen to promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood.
- Ensure Gender Equality among the students.

Conclusion:

The Gandhi Jayanti Celebration Programme was a resounding success, achieving its objective of educating and inspiring youth about Gandhi's philosophy of non-violence. The Programme demonstrated the college's commitment to promoting constitutional values and fostering a culture of peace and harmony.

Photos

Rally

Street Play

Constitution Day Celebration

Name of the Activity	Constitution Day Celebration
Name of the Organizing club	NSS
Date	26/11/2019
Venue	College
Objective	To commemorate the adoption of the Indian constitution on November 26, 1949.
Number of Participants	60
Outcome of the Programme	Increased awareness about the significance of Indian Constitution, its principles

Report of the Activity

The Constitution Day Celebration Programme, held on November 26, 2019, at the college, aimed to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution in 1949. The Programme featured a debate on the topic "Are constitutions essential for modern democracies?" moderated by P Haridas, Assistant Professor, Department of Statistics. Students from various departments participated in the debate, discussing the positive and negative aspects of the topic, including the foundation of democracy, protection of rights, and political instability. The Programme resulted in increased awareness about the significance of the Indian Constitution and its principles among 60 participants, promoting constitutional values such as freedom of speech and expression, democratic participation, and the importance of the Constitution as the foundation of democracy and protection of rights.

Outcome of the Programme:

- The students having the freedom of and expression, as participants engaged in debates and discussions.
- Students learned about the significance of Constitution.

Conclusion:

The Programme fulfilled its constitutional obligations, ensuring that participants understood and appreciated the fundamental principles of the Indian Constitution.

Photos

Inauguration

Debate

Seminar on Building Entrepreneurial Traits in New Generation

Name of the Activity	Seminar on Building Entrepreneurial Traits in New Generation
Name of the Organizing club	E D Club
Date	12/08/2022
Venue	College Seminar Hall
Objective	Motivate young people to think creatively and pursue entrepreneurial ideas
Number of Participants	67
Outcome of the Programme	Youth feel more confident in their ability to start and manage their own ventures.

Report of the Activity

ED Club organized a Seminar on Building Entrepreneurial Traits in New Generation in connection with international youth day on 12/08/2022. The Programme was inaugurated by Principal Dr.E Jayan and Preside by Dr. Saritha Namboothiri, Assistant Professor, Department of Computer Science. Felicitation by Ms. Vijayalakshmi, Assistant professor, Department pf Economics.

Session Report 1

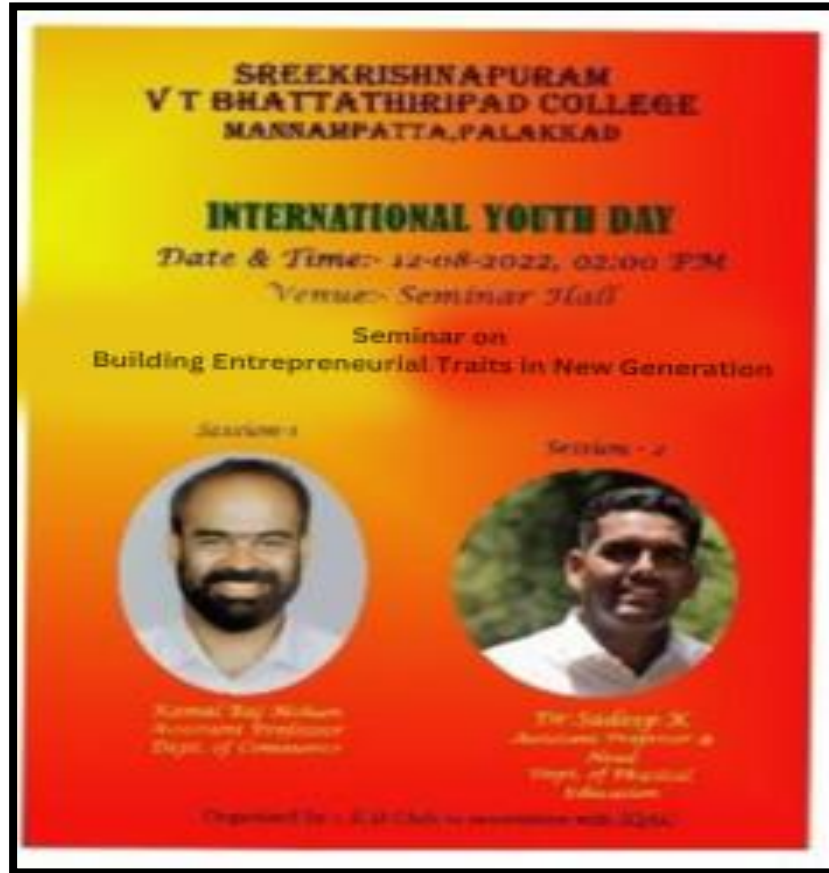

First session taken by Mr.Kamal Raj Mohan, Assistant professor Department of Commerce, about the importance of inter-generational solidarity and problems of young generation. He taken the class with different practical works and games. And it was ended with effective interactive session.

Session Report 2

Second session taken by Dr Sadeep, Assistant professor, Department of Physical education about resolving the issues of young generation through sports and yoga. He gave an idea to students about the importance of yoga in daily life and doing sports activities in daily life.

Photos

Brochure

Taking Class

Pulwama Attack 1st Anniversary Event Held in College

Name of the Activity	Pulwama Attack 1st Anniversary Event Held in College
Name of the Organizing club	Sreekrishnapuram V T Bhattathiripad College
Date	14/02/2021
Venue	College Seminar Hall
Objective	To pay tribute to the martyrs of the Pulwama attack, create awareness about the sacrifices made by the armed forces, and promote patriotism among students.
Number of Participants	Students of the College
Outcome of the Programme	Students gained a deeper understanding of the Pulwama attack and its significance.

Report

To pay a heartfelt tribute to the 40 CRPF personnel who sacrificed their lives in the Pulwama attack, and to create a sense of solidarity and patriotism among the college community. The event began with a welcome address by the college's vice principal, who highlighted the significance of the occasion. Principal Dr. E. Jayan lit the lamp, followed by faculty members and students, symbolizing the light of hope and resilience in the face of adversity. A two-minute silence was observed to pay respects to the martyrs. Dr. E. Jayan delivered a poignant speech, emphasizing the importance of national unity, patriotism, and the sacrifices made by the armed forces. Students and faculty members participated in a candlelight procession, carrying the light of tribute to the martyrs.

Outcome:

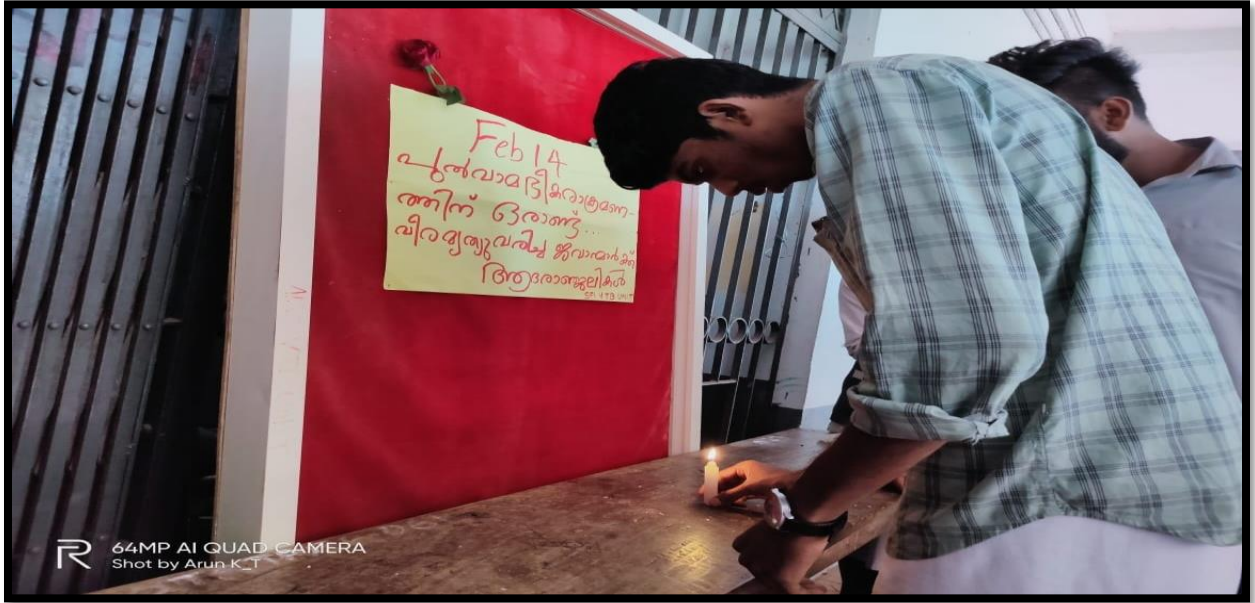

- The event strengthens bonds among participants, fostering a sense of national unity and solidarity.
 - The event raises awareness about the sacrifices made by the armed forces, promoting appreciation and respect.
- The event instills a sense of patriotism and national pride among participants, encouraging them to contribute to the nation's well-being.

Conclusion:

The "Lighting the Lamps" event was a solemn and moving tribute to the Pulwama martyrs. It reinforced the college's commitment to promoting patriotism, national unity, and solidarity.

Photos

Lighting the Lamp for the victims

Human Rights Day Celebration: Human rights -Evolution and importance

Name of the Activity	Human Rights Day Celebration: Human rights - Evolution and importance
Name of the Organizing Department	History Department
Date	13/12/2019
Venue	College Seminar Hall
Objective	To promote awareness about human rights, eradicate poverty, and ensure well-being among people.
Number of Participants	36
Outcome of the Programme	Promoting awareness about human rights among the students

Report

The Human Rights Day was Organized by Human Rights Club on 13th December 2019 from 10.am to 1.30.pm at V T B College, Sreekrishnapuram. The major purpose of this seminar was eradicating poverty among the people and help them in getting the well-being life, to promote awareness about human rights among the people all around the world etc. our college Students. Teachers and local intelligence also were voluntary participated in this seminar.

SESSION -1

Human Rights Club Co-Ordinator Dr. Geetha K delivered the welcome address. Our Principal Dr. Jayan E who was inaugurated this seminar and keynote address was fulfilled by IQAC Coordinator Dr. Saritha Namboothiri, Head of the department in Computer science.

SESSION- 2

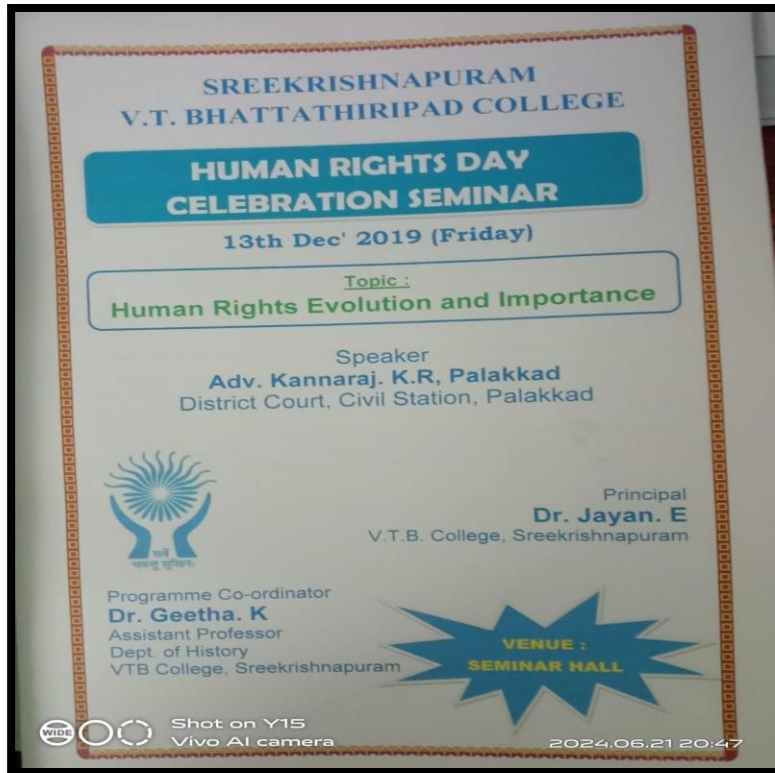

The seminar Topic was “Human rights -Evolution and importance”. This topic talk on Advocate Kannaraj K R gave information speech on the most important aim of the celebration of the Human Rights Day to eradicate the poverty from the life of human being and help them in getting the well- being life.

Session -3

At the end of the seminar, there was a feedback session which obtained a lot of positive and admirable words from all participants.

Photos

Brochure

Session by Advocate Kannaraj K R

Webinar on Human Rights Day: Right to Information and Human Rights

Name of the Activity	Webinar on Human Rights Day: Right to Information and Human Rights
Name of the Organizing Department	History Department
Date	30/12/2020
Venue	College Seminar Hall
Objective	To create awareness among students about fundamental human rights and RTI principles.
Number of Participants	30
Outcome of the Programme	Successful organization of Human Rights Day Webinar, promoting awareness about human rights and RTI principles

Report

The Human Rights Day celebration was Organized by the Human Rights Club Webinar on 30th December 2020 (Wednesday) at Sreekrishnapuram. The major purpose of this Webinar was to give awareness to the students about the fundamental human rights & RTI principle.

Session 1

Human rights coordinator Dr. Geetha K delivered the Presidential address Assistant professor Sathyabhama N delivered the welcome address, Our Principal Dr E Jayan who was inaugurated this program and keynote address was fulfilled by IQAC Coordinator Dr. Saritha Namboodiri, Head of the department in computer Science.

Session 2

The seminar topic was RTI & Human RIGHTS on 30th December 2021. The Resource person Sree Lalith Babu Tahsildar, Revenue department Palakkad. The session discussed about historical context of Human Rights and emphasized the importance of upholding them in contemporary society.

Session 3 Valedictory Session

This session concluded with the interaction session by the students and resource person. Ninety above students from the college participated in this session.

Constitutional Obligations:

- Emphasis on RTI principles, aligning with Freedom of Speech and Expression and Fundamental Duties
- Encouraging student participation, promoting the spirit of Fundamental Duties and Right to Education
- Upholding human rights in contemporary society, aligning with the Preamble's commitment to justice, liberty, and equality

Conclusion:

The Human Rights Day Webinar successfully promoted awareness about human rights and RTI principles, aligning with constitutional obligations to ensure the well-being and dignity of all individuals. The event emphasized the importance of upholding human rights and encouraged student participation, contributing to a more informed and engaged citizenry.

Photos

Brochure

Human Rights Day Celebration: Human Rights and Constitution of India

Name of the Activity	Human Rights Day Celebration: Human Rights and Constitution of India
Name of the Organizing club	History Department
Date	18/12/2021
Venue	College Seminar Hall
Objective	To create awareness among students about the significance of Human Rights and its connection with the Constitution of India
Number of Participants	30
Outcome of the Programme	Enhanced understanding among students about the fundamental rights and duties enshrined in the Constitution

Report

The Human Rights day celebration was organized by the Human rights Club of Sreekrishnapuram, V T Bhattathiripad College on December 18th 2021 , from 10am to 1.30pm via Google Meet. The primary purpose of this webinar was to outline the roles and rights of citizens, define the structure and powers of the government and its organs, and create a path for future citizens to build a corruption free society. It not only sets out ideals to be shared but also establishes the basic structure of the government defines its powers and duties, and provides the supreme law for the country. Students and teachers from our college, along with local participants, were involved in this webinar.

Session 1

Human Rights Coordinator Dr Geetha K delivered the welcome address, Our Principal Dr Jayan. E who was inaugurated this webinar and keynote address was fulfilled by IQAC Coordinator Dr Saritha Namboothiri, Head of the department of Computer science, and Statistical department Head Prof: Haridas P delivered the felicitation address.

Session 2

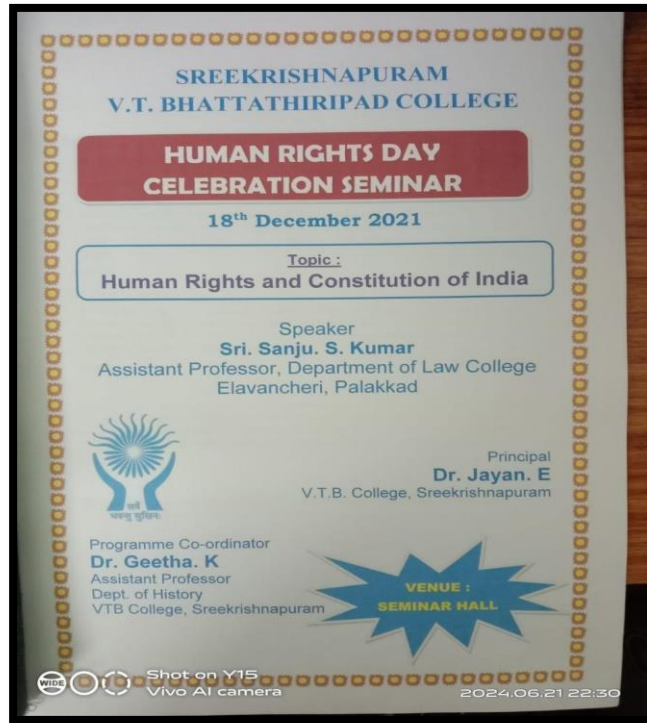

Sanju S. Kumar, Assistant Professor in the department of Law at VR Krishna Ezhuthachan college, Elavancheri, Palakkad, provided a lot of information about human rights and the Constitution of India. The most important aim of celebrating Human Rights Days to focus on the fundamental rights and liberties to which all people worldwide are entitled simply by virtue of their humanity.

Session 3

At the end of the webinar, there was feedback session received many positive and admirable comments from all participants.

Photos

Human Rights Day Celebration: Human Rights Awareness

Name of the Activity	Human Rights Day Celebration: Human Rights Awareness
Name of the Organizing club	History Department
Date	20/12/2022
Venue	College Seminar Hall
Objective	Enhanced understanding among students about the historical context and importance of human rights
Number of Participants	42
Outcome of the Programme	Enhanced understanding among students about the fundamental rights and duties enshrined in the Constitution

Report

Human Right day celebration organized by Human Rights club Sreekrishnapuram VTB College conducted a seminar on the topic of HUMAN RIGHTS AWARENESS on 20th December 2022 from 10.30 to 1.30 PM in the seminar hall. The major intention of the seminar was to give awareness to the students about the fundamental human rights principles. The section started with a prayer. After that Ms. Sathyabhama N, Assistant professor of the Department of History welcomed the resource person Mrs. Lakshmi M L, Principal Dr. E Jayan, and Dr. Geetha K, Head of the Department, coordinator of this program, professor Haridas (HOD of the Department of The Statistics of the college, PTA Secretary), and also addressed other faculty members of various departments and students of the college.

Session 1

The presidential address was delivered by D r. Geetha K .and the program inaugurated by Dr. E. Jayan Principal of the college. Retired professor Narayanan Namboothiri, (Manager of the College) and professor Haridas did the felicitation. The event successfully promoted awareness and empowered attendees with the knowledge and tools necessary to advocate for a more just and equitable society.

Session 2

The resource person, Mrs. Lakshmi, Advocate & Probation Trainer at the District Court in Palakkad, discussed the historical context of human rights and emphasized the importance of upholding them in contemporary society.

Session 3

This session concluded with a valedictory interaction between the students and the resource person. One hundred and ten students participated in this session.

Constitutional Obligations:

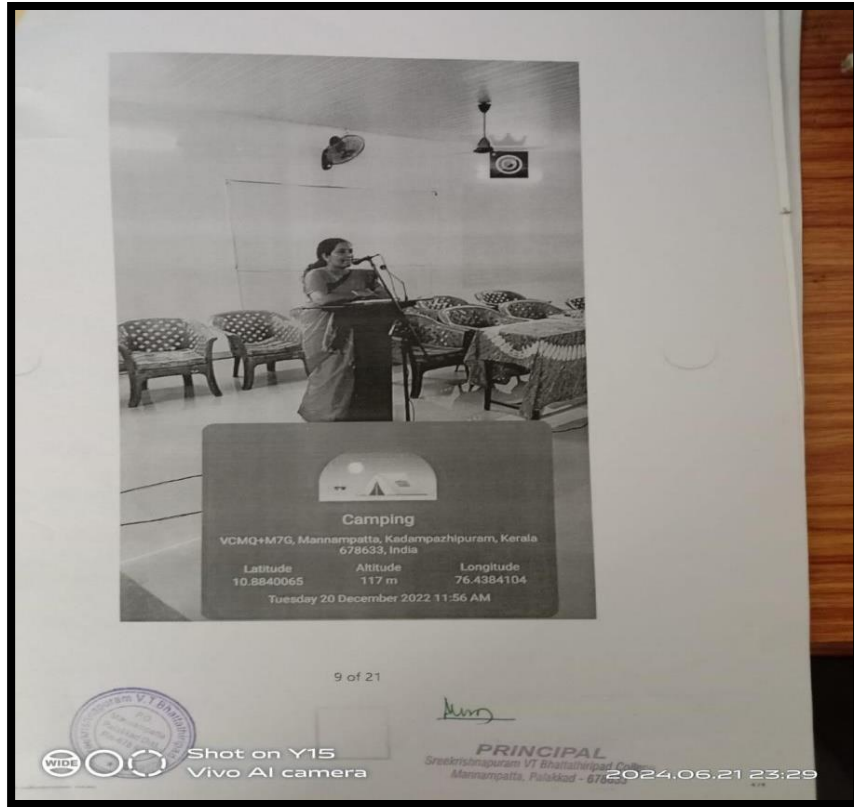

- Promotion of human rights awareness, aligning with the Preamble's commitment to justice, liberty, and equality
- Empowerment of students to advocate for a more just and equitable society, aligning with the spirit of Fundamental Duties
- Education on fundamental human rights principles, aligning with the Right to Education and Freedom of Speech and Expression
- Encouragement of student participation and engagement with human rights issues, aligning with the spirit of democratic participation and citizenship

Photos

Brochure

Session by Ms. Lakshmi, Advocate & Probation Trainer at the District Court in Palakkad

A Seminar on the Topic Human Rights and Constitution “Freedom of Mind is the Proof of One’s Existence

Name of the Activity	A seminar on Human Rights and Constitution: Freedom of Mind is the Proof of One's Existence
Name of the Organizing club	Human Right Club
Date	6/02/2024
Venue	College Seminar Hall
Objective	To create awareness among students about human rights, constitutional amendments, articles, and citizen responsibilities.
Number of Participants	135
Outcome of the Program	Voters gain a better understanding of policies, voting process etc. The voters can make rational decisions.

Report of the Activity

The Human Right Club, Sreekrishnapuram VTB College in collaboration with legal service authority, conducted a seminar on the topic Human Rights and Constitution “Freedom of Mind Is the Proof of One’s Existence “on 6/02/2024.

The major intention of the seminar was to give awareness to the students about Human rights and constitutional amendments, articles, responsibilities of citizen. The section started with a prayer. After that Ms. Priya M, Assistant professor (on contract) of the Department of History welcomed the resource person. Smt Krishnaveni, advocate, probation trainer Ottappalam court, Palakkad, Principal. Dr. Saritha Namboothiri, and Dr.Geetha K, Head of the Department, coordinator of this program, professor Haridas (HOD of the Department of Statistics, PTA Secretary) and also addressed other faculty members of various departments and students of the college.

The presidential address was delivered by Dr. Geetha K and the program inaugurated by Saritha Namboothiri, Principal of the college. Retired professor Narayanan Namboothiri, (Manager of the College) and professor Haridas did the felicitation. The focal point of the seminar was the issues of the Transgender community in our society. The resources person, Krishnaveni, advocate, probation trainer shared the human rights, constitutional awareness, and responsibilities of citizens and current issues of the society. This section concluded with the interaction section by the students and Resource person.

In the second section of the program, there was a debate associated with human rights and issues in our society. Several students from the college participated in this section. A vote of thanks was given by Aneeshma k (2nd BA history), the guest Faculty of the Department of history, VTB College for conducting a seminar and concentrating on the social issues of society. Students of BA History and other faculty members of various departments of the college took part in the seminar.

The seminar successfully enhanced awareness and promoted critical thinking among students on human rights and social issues, encouraging them to become responsible citizens.

Outcome:

- Enhanced awareness among students about human rights and constitutional amendments
- Increased understanding of citizen responsibilities and social issues, particularly those faced by the transgender community
- Encouraged critical thinking and debate among students on human rights and social issues

Constitutional Obligations:

- It promotes awareness and understanding of human rights and constitutional provisions
- It encourages citizens to participate in nation-building activities and promotes social justice, equality, and fraternity
- It focuses on issues faced by marginalized communities like the transgender community

Conclusion:

By conducting this seminar, the Department of History fulfills its constitutional obligation to promote awareness, understanding, and exercise of constitutional provisions, ultimately contributing to the growth of responsible and informed citizens.

Photos

SREEKRISHNAPURAM
V.T. BHATTATHIRIPAD COLLEGE
MANNAMPATTA
Re accredited by NAAC with B+ Grade

HUMAN RIGHTS CLUB CONDUCTING A SEMINAR ON 6TH FEBRUARY 2024 (TUESDAY)

TOPIC :
HUMAN RIGHTS AND CONSTITUTION.
" FREEDOM OF MIND IS THE PROOF OF ONE'S EXISTENCE "

Speaker
Smt. Krishna Veni
Advocate, Probation Trainer
Ottapalam Court. Palakkad

Principal
Dr. Saritha namboothiri

Programme Co-ordinator
Dr. GEETHA.K
Assistant Professor
Dept. of History
VTB College, Sreekrishnapuram

VENUE :
SEMINAR HALL

Brochure

Krishnaveni, Advocate, Probation trainer Ottappalam court, Palakkad, Presenting Seminar

PRINCIPAL
Sreekrishnapuram VT Bhattathiripad College
Mannampatta, Palakkad - 678633